

- 1 ferme adv. nearly, almost; for the most part. regno (I) to reign, rule. domi militiaeque: “at home and on campaign” (a locative). absonus, -a, -um + dat. or abl. inconsistent with.
- 2 fides, -ei f. faith, confidence, belief. divinitas, -atis f. divinity. credo, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to believe; trust; imagine, suppose. Here credita modifies divinitatis. animus, -i m. mind, intellect; judgment, belief; courage, spirit.
- 3 avitus, -a, -um, of one’s grandfather; ancestral. reciperando from recupero (I), to recover, regain.
- 4 firmiter (I) to strengthen. ab illo: an ablative of personal agent dependent on the passive datis. profecto adv. truly, surely, indeed. vis f. force, violence; pl. strength, military power, resources. The declension of vis is defective: vis, ---, ---, vim, vi, vires, virium, viribus, vires, viribus. valeo, -ere, -ui, to be strong, be healthy; be powerful, be influential.
- 5 tutus, -a, -um, safe, secure. multitudo, -tudinis f. multitude; crowd, mob. gatus, -a, -um, pleasing.
- 6 longe adv. far, very much. ante alios: “above others”. acceptus, -a, -um + dat. welcome, pleasing, agreeable. miles, militis m. soldier.
- 7 custodia, -ae f. watching, guarding.
- 9 edo, -ere, edidi, editum, to give out, put forth; publish, make known; display, produce, perform. opus, -eris n. work, labor; achievement, deed. recenseo, -ere, -sui, -sum, to count, number; muster, survey, review. contio, -ionis f. public meeting.
- 10 Capra: a depression or swamp in the lowest part of the Campus Martius (near the later site of the Pantheon). palus, -udis f. swamp, marsh. subito adv. suddenly. coorior, -iri, -ortus sum, to arise, break out. tempesta, -atis f. storm.
- 11 frangor, -oris m. crashing; noise; breaking. tonitrus, -us m. thunder. densus, -a, -um, thick, dense. operio, -ere, -ui, -tum, to cover; hide, conceal. nimbus, -i m. rain cloud. conspicuum, -us m. sight, view.
- 12 contioni: A dative of separation. Verbs of taking away, especially compounds of ab, de, ex, ad, often govern a dative of the person, less often of the thing. aufero, auferre, abstuli, ablatum, to carry away, remove. pubes, -is f. young men. sedo (I) to soothe, calm, appease. Read sedato with pavore.
- 13 pavor, -oris m. trembling, quaking; terror, dread. serenus, -a, -um, clear, bright. redeo, -ire, -ivi (-ii), -itum, to return.
- 14 vacuus, -a, -um, empty. sedes, -is f. seat. regius, -a, -um, royal. etsi conj. although.
- 15 sublimen adv. on high, upwards. raptum = raptum esse. procella, -ae f. squall, tempest. velut, even as, just as. orbitas, -atis f. bereavement (of parents or children). metus, -us m. fear. ico, -ere, ici, ictum, to strike, smite. maestus, -a, -um, sad.
- 16 aliquamdiu adv. for some time. silentium obtinere: to keep silent. initium, -i m. beginning. de: ablative of origin. nascor, nasci, natus sum, to be born.
- 17 salveo, -ere, to be well; greet, hail. universi: everyone. iubeo, -ere, iussi, iussum, to order, command; to designate, appoint.
- 18 prex, precis m. prayer. exposco, -ere, exposposci, to ask or beg earnestly. uti = ut. volens, -entis, wishing (from volo, velle, volui). propitius, -a, -um, well-disposed, gracious. sospito (I) to save, protect.
- 19 progenies, -ei f. progeny, offspring. aliqui, aliqua, aliquid pron. some. discerpo, -ere, -psi, -ptum, to tear to pieces; scatter. Here discerptum = discerptum esse in indirect speech with regem as the accusative in indirect speech.
- 20 tacitus, -a, -um, silent. arguo, -ere, -ui, -utum, to make known; assert, claim. mano (I) to spread, flow. perobscurus, -a, -um, very obscure. fama, -ae f. report, rumor; reputation.
- 21 illam alteram: that other one (i.e., the story of Romulus’ deification). admiratio, -ionis f. admiration; wonder, amazement. praesens, -entis, present. nobilito (I) to make known, make famous. consilium, -i n. plan; counsel; council.
- 22 addo, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to add. Here addita esse. sollicito (I) to disturb, agitate.
- 23 civitas, -atis f. city; citizenry. desiderium, -i n. longing, yearning, wish. infensus, -a, -um, hostile. gravis, -e, serious, weighty. trado, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to hand over; hand down, say, recount. quamvis conj. although; ever so much
- 24 auctor, -oris m. authority; author; adviser. prodo, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to put forth; proclaim; reveal; betray. Quirites: Roman citizens.

- 25 hodiernus, -a, -um, today's. prima hodierna luce: an ablative of time when. caelum, -i n. sky, heaven. repente adv. suddenly. delabor, -i, -lapsus sum, to slip down, glide down. obvius, -a, -um, meeting, to meet + dat.
- 26 perfuno, -ere, -fudi, -fusum, to soak, flood, bathe; inspire, fill. horror, -oris m. trembling, shuddering, dread; awe. venerabundus, -a, -um, full of reverence. adsto, -ere, -stiti, to stand by; stand erect; assist. peto, -ere, -evi, -itum, to ask; seek; head for. prex, precis m. prayer.
- 27 intueor, -eri, -itus sum, to gaze upon. fas n. invar. religiously correct. abeo, -ire, -ivi (-ii), to go away, leave. nuntio (I) to announce. caelestes, -ium, the gods. volo, velle, volui, to wish.
- 28 caput, -it is n. head. orbis terrarum = the world. proinde, therefore. colo, -ere, colui, cultum, to cultivate; worship. scio, -ire, scivi, scitum, to know.
- 29 poster, -orum m.pl. descendants, posterity. trado, -ere, -didi, -ditum, to hand over; hand down, say, recount. ops, opis f. might, power, strength, resources, wealth.
- 30 locustus: recall that the perfect participles of deponent verbs are active – “having spoken”. sublimis, -e, high, lofty. mirum = mirum est.
- 31 quamque = et quam. desiderium, -i n. longing, yearning, wish. exercitus, -us m. army.
- 32 lenio, -ire, -ivi, -itum, to alleviate, mitigate, soften, soothe.